Business Growth Prompts Office Expansion as Imaging Science and Services, Inc. (ISSI) Moves its Headquarters on April 2

Cleveland, Ohio, April 2, 2007 – Imaging Science and Services, Inc., (<http://www.issimage.com>), relocated corporate headquarters into a much larger space in Hudson, Ohio, a suburb of Cleveland. A number of major account wins and steady business growth coupled with ISSI's commitment to never outsource financial document handling has led to this expansion. ISSI customers depend upon the confidentiality and security provided by its in-house service team when handling their financial and sales tax records. The additional space will make room for more service personnel handling document conversion, document update and audit support for customers managing their sales tax exemption certificates over the web with TEAMS Express on Demand. The new office also provides dedicated, state of the art training facilities for ISSI customers.

All telephone numbers remain the same as we move across the parking lot. The mailing address has changed effective April 2, 2007:

Imaging Science and Services, Inc.
